The Churchill Difference

Real-world leadership experience.

Our 200+ Executive Coaches, Consultants and Trainers have rich leadership experience in private and public sectors as well as coaching and training certifications.

Strengths-accelerated approach.

Using CliftonStrengths® we accelerate the natural untapped talent in your people, for more authentic and sustainable growth, and to maximize new leadership mindsets, skills and capability.

A focus on outcomes.

We have high standards for our clients, and expect your organization to receive significant benefits from our partnership. As such we have a methodology for measuring results.

Global footprint.

Churchill's team is diverse with experts across North and Latin America, Europe, Middle East and Asia-Pacific. We can scale delivery to meet your regional and cultural needs.

An agile and flexible partner.

Through building a high trust partnership we meet you where you are, to provide you the best solutions. We collaborate to deliver constant improvement and a laser focus on your unique needs.
